Judge Chillingworth Rules For A Special Election In N. Borough Commission Race

Hearing Arguments Hinge On Validity Of Liebowitz's Vote

The city's election riddle, which seemed to get more involved each day, was untangled Wednesday at 11:45 a.m. when Judge C. Chillingworth of the circuit court upheld the city's decision calling for a special election between North Borough commission candidates.

The decision stated "there is no reason in law that the city commission proceed to canvass the returns, declare the results and call for a special election for city commissioner of North Borough."

The ruling climaxed discussions of validity of the election before the city commission and two hearings Monday and Tuesday in the circuit court on the friend's declaratory judgment suit brought by the city with H. O. Carlton and Junius Harris, incumbents.

Following the general election here on Oct. 11 Harry Liebowitz signed an affidavit stating that he had voted illegally. Election returns showed that Carlton received 266 votes and Harris, incumbent, 259 votes.

Friday afternoon for both defendants motions to dismiss the city suit. Harris' attorney waived the argument E. F. Allen, attorney for Carlton, cited grounds for the action.

The judge dismissed both motions at the beginning of Monday's hearing.

Court staled that the city's suit failed to state a claim that it was vague and conflicting, involved the rights of persons who were not made defendants in the suit and that the city had no right to sue. The question raised, also that the petition for declaratory judgment should have been filed on behalf of the city commission as the canvassing board.

TRAILWAYS BUS IS INVOLVED IN ACCIDENT

The Trailways Bus was damaged Sunday night when it struck and killed three cattle on the U. S. Highway 27 about ten miles south of the town. The accident occurred about 9 p.m.

The bus from Miami was running a little late into South Bay. None of the passengers were injured.

The cattle belonging to the Babcock Farm had broken through the fence to get to high ground from their flooded pasture and were guarded by the farm crew.

Highway Patrolman Valter Sheffield previously had been called and had given members of the crew flags to warn both the cattle and the traffic of the cattle on the highway and flares had been set. The patrolman had temporarily returned to South Bay to secure more flags at the time of the accident. The driver of the bus evidently misunderstood the warnings.

CITY HAS 89.7 PERCENT POPULATION INCREASE

Belle Glade has had a 89.7 per cent increase in population in the ten years from 1940 to 1950, according to figures compiled by the Bureau of the Census, recently released by Mrs. C. L. Lofland, assistant director of the U. S. Department of Commerce in Atlanta.

Records show that local population has increased from 3,806 in 1940 to 7,219 in 1950. The city's growth probably will generally reflect an increase during this period.

The county itself reflected an increase of 43.4 per cent, or from a population of 79,989 in 1940 to 114,888 in 1950.

City Sets Oct. 23 For Election In N. Borough Race

The city commission set the date for the special election among North Borough candidates. H. O. Carlton and Junius Harris, incumbents, will be elected on Oct. 23 in a special election called by the city with H. O. Carlton and Junius Harris, incumbents.

Friday afternoon for both defendants motions to dismiss the city suit. Harris' attorney waived the argument E. F. Allen, attorney for Carlton, cited grounds for the action.

TISDALE HEADS NEW SETUP FOR REPORTS ON PLANT DISEASE

An improved setup for reporting plant disease has been arranged by the United States Department of Agriculture and the various states in an effort to keep down damage from outbreaks of plant disease.

Dr. W. B. Tisdale, head of the plant pathology department in the University of Florida Agricultural Experiment Station, has been selected as Florida's representative to work with USDA in the plant disease survey. His selection was announced by Director of Research Fifeild, with approval of Director H. G. Clayton of the Agricultural Extension Service and Commissioner A. C. Brown of the State Plant Board. Director Fifeild says, the state will or-

Farmers discovering any new or unfamiliar plant disease should report it at once, immediately to their county agent or to staff members of the Experiment Station, or to the State Plant Board. Disease unknown to any of these agencies should be reported to the state leader. If Dr. Tisdale is unfamiliar with the reported disease, he will submit specimens to the Plant Disease Survey in Washington.

Report the disease and control information will then be passed to the farmer in a reverse manner, and all possible technical assistance will be given by state and federal agencies.

Since early discovery is the most important step in controlling plant disease, Director Tisdale says, the state will or-

HUNDREDS OF MOURNING Doves EXPECTED HERE DURING HUNTING SEASON

Hundreds of brightly-colored mourning doves will be seen throughout the entire southeastern section of the United States as part of the dove-migration study program.

The result of a scientific investigation pioneered as a trapping technique by the Florida Game Commission, the multi-colored project will take in five southeastern states this year. Each state will be assigned a different color.

Dr. R. G. Howle, of the program, said

Winston, is to study migratory habits of doves so that the hunting season may be properly regulated so as to conserve stocks and distribute hunting of the game birds on an equal basis.

I read in a article recently that told about Independence Hall, in Philadelphia, birthplace of American liberty, being treated for termites for the first time since it was built over two hundred years ago.

According to the story, a quantity of timbers had to be removed and the ground under the building treated with chemicals to a considerable depth. It seems to me this is symbolic of what has happened to the Nation itself since the Declaration of Independence was signed in that famous building. The sons and founders of this great Republic compare the present day version of the United States of America with the blueprint they used in its creation, they would turn over in their graves and weep salty tears.

While the termites were getting into Old Independence Hall, another and more sinister type of termite has been eating at the vitals of the greatest nation ever conceived and unless we, the people, wake up, remove the damaged timbers and do a first-class job of fumigating, we may see the nation wrecking the Hall. This is a mighty nation in the past.

How the termites managed to do all that damage to Independence Hall is not the matter of course, if it is asked, it could have been brought about by the gain of control by one political group of termites that sneered at everything the Hall stood for, cut down their own wood and ate their own bark, and the sweat of their brows, but the smart political termites advanced the idea that that was also a matter of nonsense. They advanced the idea that the forces of industry, hard-working, honest, decent, and law-abiding citizens and turning them over to the lazy, no-account termites. They called this Social Security and at night, thumbing a book, "Freedom from Want, Freedom from Fear, Freedom from This and Freedom from That."

They began to squander the wealth of the nation. First, the slogan was "Tax and Spend, Elect and Elect." The rotted wood of Independence Hall stunk to High Heaven, but the political termites, ruined by 11 termite citizens did not realize what was happening to them. At every election they fell for the old "Security" gag and relinquished more and more of their independence as they meekly submitted to more and more taxes.

They did not realize that their house was crumbling upon them and their went their money, but they were happy with the thought that they would be taken care of in their old age, that they would be paid for not working, and that if they voted right they did not have to pay many questions they would be among the favored and Santa Clause would be their Patron Saint.

VETERANS INFORMATION AND SERVICE

This information will be of much interest to all those disabled veterans eligible to receive hearing aid batteries and stamp books from the Veterans Administration.

The Veterans Administration will establish two distribution centers to supply these products direct to the veteran, in just a few days instead of weeks.

The Eastern Prosthetics distribution Center will go into operation November 1, 1951 in New York City, serving veterans residing in states east of the Mississippi River.

The Western Prosthetics Distribution Center will go into operation in Denver, Colorado, and will start serving veterans who live west of the Mississippi River on January 2, 1952.

When the Centers go into operation, the veteran who has a VA-Approved hearing aid or an artificial limb will simply drop a postage-free postal card into the mail and his fresh supply of batteries or stamp books, as the case may be, will be packed and mailed to him by the Prosthetic Distribution Center for his area.

Under the new system, Regional Offices will send the initial mailing cards to the disabled veterans. These cards will be addressed to the distribution center handling the area where the veteran resides. After this, the fresh supplies will be packed and mailed to him by the Prosthetic Distribution Center for his area.

These cards will be addressed to the distribution center handling the area where the veteran resides. After this, the fresh supplies will be packed and mailed to him by the Prosthetic Distribution Center for his area.

The postage-free cards should be mailed by the veterans approximately 10 days before new batteries or stamp books are required. This will eliminate the need of the veteran to constantly supply on hand.

The Center will send the veterans an estimated 3 months supply of the needed items.

A similar system will be used to furnish these items to eligible veterans temporarily residing in foreign countries.

Over 100,000 disabled veterans, on the inside of the Administration, were in a position to provide the foreign termites with secret information and help them get supplies in Independence Hall which was marked for destruction.

For nearly 200 years termites had been obliged to climb up on wood and eat their own bark, and the sweat of their brows, but the smart political termites advanced the idea that that was also a matter of nonsense. They advanced the idea that the forces of industry, hard-working, honest, decent, and law-abiding citizens and turning them over to the lazy, no-account termites. They called this Social Security and at night, thumbing a book, "Freedom from Want, Freedom from Fear, Freedom from This and Freedom from That."

They began to squander the wealth of the nation. First, the slogan was "Tax and Spend, Elect and Elect."

The rotted wood of Independence Hall stunk to High Heaven, but the political termites, ruined by 11 termite citizens did not realize what was happening to them.

At every election they fell for the old "Security" gag and relinquished more and more of their independence as they meekly submitted to more and more taxes.

They did not realize that their house was crumbling upon them and their went their money, but they were happy with the thought that they would be taken care of in their old age, that they would be paid for not working, and that if they voted right they did not have to pay many questions they would be among the favored and Santa Clause would be their Patron Saint.

Seeing the indifference of the average citizen termites and recognizing the opportunity to move in, criminal termites began making alliances with political termites; they took over the cities and areas, did a lush amount of damage, began slapping down to pay off to the right guys and did a land office business.

Now and then some honest, sincere termite made a stand, as to protect or not to let himself to issue a warning to his fellow citizens. He was promptly hatched off or term'd a "right-wing" "reactionary".

Maybe the guardians of Independence Hall have acted soon enough to preserve that great old structure. Only time will tell, but there is no indication that they will be able to do this.

Most of these great nation are concerned enough to start removing dangerous timbers or doing a good job of fumigating. Most of them are hatched up to their necks in a sawdust of "Security" and they will probably stay there until their house falls on them.
